This is on behalf of Duane Townsell. The Townsell family has lived in Black Springs since the 1950's. Our mother still resides in our family home in black springs. Her and my father raised 6 kids in that home and that's history! That house was built by my father and is thriving to this day, solely because of the love that my mother & siblings have for our family home. Its unfathomable to even think for a minute that the Townsell home, the Carthens home, the Bufkin and all the historical houses that were built with blood. Sweat & tears weren't going to continue being passed down from generation to generation. Nothing is more important than family and that's what these family homes are FAMILY!

Howdy,

My wife and I have received your suspiciously vague postcard in our mailbox. The link you wrote on it doesn't work. Was that on purpose? After searching the internet for a while, I stumbled across what seems to be your plan. You're trying to annex, correct? Absorb the unincorporated land surrounding the city, so you can squeeze money out of the people who don't want to be a part of your city, in the first place? We live close to Reno for my wife's career. If we wanted to buy a house inside the border of Reno, we would have. We don't appreciate the majority of cities' political stances, police departments, and tax usage, so we didn't buy a house in the city. Now you are forcing us and everyone in our neighborhood to be a part of your system? No. It's not ok. It may happen, you may succeed, but you know it isn't right, fair, or at all a democratic process. From everything I'm reading about this, it seems like there isn't much I can do about you forcing your will upon my family and our neighbors without our consent, but I'm at least going to let you know that I know what you are doing, and that your behavior is selfish, authoritative, and morally wrong. I understand that it's a big club, and we're not in it, but maybe you can develop the abilities to self-analyze your own actions, and to realize that empathy is not something to be pushed aside. Side note: You couldn't come up with a less creepy name than "Master Plan Amendment"?

Peace & Love,

Dave
