Biggest Challenge in Spending the CRF Allocation:

- 75% of respondents found the restrictions on the use of CRF funds, including the inability to use funds on lost revenue and the deadline to spend funds by 12/30/2020, to be their biggest challenge.

- 62% of respondents found the guidance and FAQs from the Treasury to be their biggest challenge in spending their CRF allocation. Respondents also stated that the use of funds did not align with the needs of local governments in terms of how they budget.

Reminder: CARES funding eligibility is subject to meeting the Treasury’s Coronavirus Relief Fund (“Fund”) Guidance and to the restrictions outlined in the Guidance and set forth in section 602(d) of the Social Security Act, as added by section 5001 of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (“CARES Act”).

To be eligible costs must:
- Be necessary and in specific response to the COVID-19 Pandemic
- Must not have a current funding source, i.e., not budgeted or are substantially different than what is budgeted
- Goods and services must be purchased following Federal Purchasing requirements and have been placed into service and being utilized by December 30, 2020
