Member Green asked if the Board went to a paperless system would the back up material be received three days prior to the hearings. Mr. Wilson replied as soon as the disc was completed it would be distributed to the Board no later than three days before the scheduled hearings.

Member Krolick inquired if the files could be sent via e-mail to the Board members. Mr. Wilson said staff would review that, but felt it was feasible.

Mr. Kaplan explained if those questions were in connection with a specific hearing it should be conducted in an open meeting.

Mr. Kaplan discussed Ethics in Government, which covered the Code of Ethics contained in NRS Chapter 281A that reviewed information on the conduct of public officers.

Member Green distributed a copy of Roberts Rules of Order to the other Board members and stated by using these rules as a guideline it could move the meetings in a timelier manner.

Chairperson McAlinden asked if there could be a time limit for presentations. Member Krolick did not think it would be wise to set time limits, but if a petitioner was repeating the facts, the Board could direct them to supply new information. and facts. Member Covert agreed. Mr. Kaplan suggested it be dealt with on a case-by-case basis.

After discussion, the Board agreed to go to a paperless system and requested a printer be available for Board members at the meetings. Josh Wilson, Assessor, stated the Board would be supplied with laptops as soon as possible.

Chairperson McAlinden collected the calendars from the Board members and gave them to the Clerk's Office to coordinate the dates for the hearings. She asked for suggestions on grouping petitions and/or placing time certain on the agendas. Member Krolick commented grouping would work better for this Board, but was not in favor of time certain. The other Board members agreed.

Jason Guinasso, Littler Mendelson Law Firm, commented noticing was an important property right of the taxpayer and felt it was best to give sufficient notice so the taxpayer could prepare their case. He indicated he hoped the Board would retain the 10-day noticing timeframe for petitioners.

Following discussion pertaining to the number of days to notice a petitioner of their hearing, the Board chose to retain the 10-day notice practice. Chairperson McAlinden stated they would schedule days near the end of February to hear appeals that were continued. She said at the end of the scheduled hearings for this session, the Board would discuss changing the timeframe for noticing petitioners.

Chairperson McAlinden referred to a handout distributed from the Clerk's Office that advised petitioners if they were to present evidence to the Board, they should supply eight copies. The Board members decided to continue with this practice. Amy Harvey, County Clerk, indicated she could revise the letter giving clearer direction for the petitioner.

Chairperson McAlinden remarked if a Board member knew in advance they would not be able to attend a meeting, they should contact the Chair or the Vice Chairman and the Clerk's Office so an alternate could be contacted.
