PETITIONER'S EVIDENCE

Washoe County Board of Equalization

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to serve two purposes:

- 1) Appeal of denial of my veteran tax exemption for my home for 2022/2023, and
- 2) Notification of change of mailing address.

I have just received Ms. Jachimowicz's letter of June 29, 2022, regarding my veteran exemption renewal for my home at 700 College Drive (APN 129-252-03). Just before my family was sent overseas for my spouse's military assignment in 2018, I came to your office to notify the County of this. I watched as a note was made in the record to indicate that we were a military family and would be going abroad due to military service.

Our home at 700 College Drive is the only home we own. We do not have any vehicles registered in the State of Nevada.

Due to the lack of a formal agreement with the Government of Chile regarding official diplomatic mail, mail was not regularly sent to or received at U.S. Embassy Santiago, where we were assigned from November 2018 until July 2022 (for example, I have still yet to receive my absentee ballot for the June 2022 primary election, which would have been mailed in April 2022). In addition, due to personnel turnover in the summer months and severe staffing shortages as a result, the Embassy's Diplomatic Post Office (DPO) did not have sufficient full-time or dedicated staff to maintain the DPO's regular hours in June 2022.

Consequently, I did not receive the County's request for renewal of the veteran's exemption until June, and though I did place it in the outgoing mailbox at the DPO, it appears that it was not timely stamped, likely due to personnel shortage. To verify the information provided above, you may contact the Embassy's DPO Supervisor, Mr. Demetrius Dease, at DeaseDJ@state.gov.

Furthermore, as my family has just returned to the United States and have been reassigned in Colorado, please note our new mailing address, effective August 1, 2022, is:

3418 MacGregor Drive
Colorado Springs, CO 89451

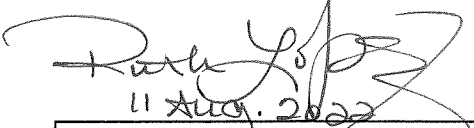

Thank you for your consideration of this matter, and feel free to contact me at the phone number(s) listed on my appeal form.

Respectfully,

(Ms., not Mr.) Melissa Horton, U
