State law requires that each public at-large member of the Debt Management Commission must have a knowledge of its financial structure and at least 5 years of experience in the field of public administration, public accounting or banking. Please briefly describe or highlight experience that satisfies those requirements. A combination of experiences in those fields will satisfy the requirement. The existing members of the Debt Management Commission will appoint 2 public at-large members after determining the minimum qualifications have been met.

Please print or type, and complete the form entirely
