Washoe County Library

EXPLORER

September–November 2021

A Welcome from Library Director Jeff Scott

Happy fall from all of us at Washoe County Library! Over the summer, we moved ahead with the expansion of hours and services at ten of our libraries. We're keeping that momentum going, and we are excited to welcome you into our branches for Story Time and other events. We are also looking forward to future improvements to the library system as we finish developing our strategic plan for 2021–2024. We can't thank our community enough for participating in this process by attending community forums and providing valuable feedback, and we can't wait to see what's next for Washoe County Library!

This September, join us to celebrate Library Card Sign-Up Month all month long. It's the perfect time to make sure your friends and family know about why you use and support Washoe County Library. During Banned Books Week (September 26–October 2), an annual event that spotlights attempts at censorship of books in libraries and schools, our libraries will be busy promoting the freedom to read.

During National Friends of Libraries Week (October 17–23), we recognize the Friends of Washoe County Library. Throughout this annual commemoration, we extend our gratitude to FWCL for their year-round support of the library. You can learn more about how you can become a member and support this invaluable Nevada nonprofit at washoelibraryfriends.org. October will be TeenTober, with a focus on services for teens all month long during this nationwide observance from the Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA).

Our continued partnerships with Pioneer Center Youth Programs, the Nevada Historical Society, and the Historic Reno Preservation Society will bring a host of exciting events to library branches and online this fall. And look for the return of A Thousand Miles of Desert and Mountains, an interactive multimedia series created in partnership with University of Nevada Libraries Special Collections. You can sign up for this interactive adventure with the Beanstack app starting October 1, just in time for Nevada Day.

As in-person events return to our libraries this fall, registration will be required for all events. You can stay up-to-date about what's coming and register by visiting washoecountylibrary.us/events. Be sure to follow us on social media and sign up for our email newsletter for the latest updates. Library hours, mask requirements, and in-person services may still be impacted by the spread of COVID-19 in the region. The latest updates about our safe reopening, including the most current information about hours and services, can be found at washoecountylibrary.us/reopen.

Back to School

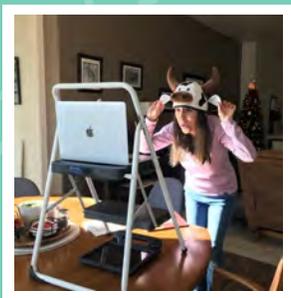

with the Library

A new school year is here, and we are here for you!

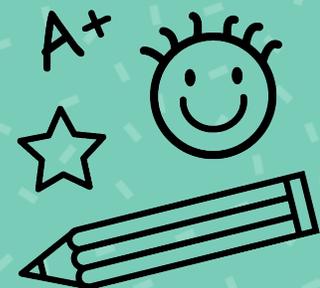

The library provides access to resources that can help with schoolwork, no matter the grade level. On our website you will find valuable information for homework help, teaching at home, homeschooling, educators, literacy and family engagement, and STEAM. Check it out!

School and Event Visits

Come visit us and set up a tour for your class or group. Library staff can also come to you and share all that the library offers.

Virtual outreaches are available!
We can provide virtual tours of library resources for classrooms, parent groups, and more.
Contact us to arrange a meeting.

Library Resource Guides

We have resource guides to help you find books, research, college prep, events, reading challenges, and more! All guides are available on our website and can be printed and distributed.

Resource guides support learning for:

- early childhood
- elementary school
- middle/high school
- all ages

Visit us at washoeountylibrary.us/resources/k12.php to get started!

To arrange for the library's participation at a school or other community event, please contact your neighborhood library, visit our Community Collaborations page, or reach out to Beate Weinert, Youth Services and Library Events Manager, at bweinert@washoeounty.us.

LIBRARY PRO TIPS: Homework Help Series

Join us for this bi-weekly, back-to-school Pro Tips program focused on learning, research, and citation. Each month, we will explore a different database. Learn how to get the most out of these robust databases, including researching, live tutoring, virtual meeting spaces, citation support, translation, and more. Each session will focus on a different aspect of a database, no two sessions will be identical, and participation in all sessions is not required. As always, there will be time for questions. All of our virtual events are archived on the Library website and YouTube. Registration is required.

Topics Below

Brainfuse HelpNow - September 9 and 23, 5:30-6:30 pm

Live tutors and academic resources for students at all levels, including test preparation, a writing lab, and help completing the FAFSA. Requires the latest version of Java.

Points of View Reference Center - October 7 and 21, 5:30-6:30 pm

This database contains resources that present multiple sides of an issue and provides rich content that can help students assess and develop persuasive arguments and essays, better understand controversial issues, and develop analytical thinking skills.

Explora - November 4 and 18, 5:30-6:30 pm

Smart researchers start with Explora from EBSCO.

High School - includes full text for hundreds of publications in an interface that's easy to search.

Middle School - includes full text of more than 140 popular magazines and Lexile reading level for all articles.

Elementary School - includes full text for more than 70 popular magazines and Lexile reading level for all articles.

The New York Times - Complimentary digital access to The New York Times, including historic archives.

Libby/OverDrive - Our collection of downloadable ebooks, audiobooks, and digital magazines. Read or listen on your computer, mobile device, or dedicated e-reader.
