1155 E. 9th Street, Reno NV 89512

1. Call to Order/Roll Call – Meeting called to order at 3:05 pm by Dr. Larry Weiss. Because Donna Clontz serves on both boards (as an alternate on the WCSSAB), she chose to represent the City of Reno SCAC during this meeting. City of Reno and County of Washoe met a quorum.

Washoe County Senior Services Advisory Board: Dr. Larry Weiss, Connie McMullen, Marsy Kupfersmith, Sandra Dexter, Dennis Chin, Wayne Alexander, Garth Elliot
City of Reno Senior Citizen Advisory Committee: Donna Clontz, CJ Bawden, Wendy Boszak, Vanessa Dixon, Marsy Kupfersmith, Robert Mulvana, Linda Musselman

Staff Present:
Washoe County Senior Services Advisory Board: Ken Retterath, Abby Badolato, Sandra Vasquez, Leslie Admirand-Deputy District Attorney
City of Reno Senior Citizen Advisory Committee: Andy Bass, Darryl Feemster, Leslie Smith

Guests: Sally Ramm

2. Public Comment – Tod Sherman stated he is a caregiver for his wife for the last 3 years; he is unable to collect social security because he is too young and his wife is 100% disabled veteran. He has been battling the problem of getting information when they need it and they have been working on gathering information to make it easier and more cohesive. He stated he is always at the VA and applied for aid and attendance as well as respite care. Dennis Chin stated there is a veteran representative at the Reno center once or twice a month.

Diane Buckley stated she belongs to a group of people at the University of Nevada working on elder abuse and she asked the public to take action on social security; republican Sam Johnson’s bill stated social security benefits would be preserved for generations to come, but it’s not true, the bill would cut social security benefits by 1/3, raise retirement age from 67 to 69 and change the benefit computation formula to change the benefit amount. She asked the public to call senators and congressional representatives to stop the bill because it will affect current and future social security recipients.

Katie Colling stated she is from Reno Initiative for Shelter and Equality and they served over 1200 meals to people. She wanted to talk about affordable housing and how there is not enough affordable housing in the community, it has its own niche market and is only constructed in certain areas, therefore isolating poverty. There are things that can be done to prevent this, such as community land trust, safe grounds so people can sleep outside safely, mandate a percentage of housing and development for affordable housing and work places.

Brooke Lymes stated she is different; she lives in a house on wheels that some may call an RV with two service dogs. It is illegal for her to park and sleep on the streets of Sparks and Reno. If the overflow shelter is full, people can stay at the waiting room where they can be warm and dry but they cannot lay down. She stated regulations need to be looked at because homeless people that stay under bridges leave a mess behind and then that has to be cleaned. Instead what could be done is have them stay at the park where there is a garbage can and it’s sanitary.

Wendy Boszak is president of Women of Washoe and they are part of the Alliance for Retired Americans. They have a petition to present to Congressman Amodei and Senator Heller and they would like the public to look at it and fill it out.

Larry Weiss asked elected officials to introduce themselves.

Donald Abbott stated he is on the Sparks City Council Ward I.

Jeanne Herman stated she is a County Commissioner in District 5.

Garth Elliot stated he is from the General Improvement Development Board of Directors in Sun Valley.

Ken Retterath stated he is the Division Director of Washoe County Social Services and administrator of Senior Services.

Andy Bass stated he is the Director of Parks, Recreation and Community Services with the City of Reno. Leslie Smith is his administrative secretary and Darryl Feemster is the Manager of the Youth and Seniors Division with the City of Reno.

3. Member Announcements – Garth Elliot stated he has spoken multiple times at county commission meetings and he encourages seniors to speak about issues at the county commission meetings.

4. Approval of Agenda for January 4, 2017 Meeting: Dennis Chin motioned for the approval of the agenda for January 4, 2017 for WCSSAB and Garth Elliot seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously for the WCSSAB. Donna Clontz motioned for the approval of the agenda for January 4, 2017 for SCAC and Vanessa Dixon seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously for the SCAC.

5. Approval of Minutes from October 5, 2016 Meeting: Dennis Chin motioned for the approval of the minutes for October 5, 2016 for WCSSAB and Wayne Alexander seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously for the WCSSAB. Wendy Boszak motioned for the approval of the minutes for October 5, 2016 for SCAC and Donna Clontz seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously for the SCAC.

6. Presentation regarding current legislation regarding senior issues at the Nevada Legislature for 2017 and workshop on advocacy at state and local levels - Donna Clontz commented that Amber Joiner had to be in Las Vegas and would not be attending the meeting. Larry introduced Sally Ramm, Elder Rights Attorney from Nevada Aging and Disability Services Division. Sally stated she would like everyone to put on the hat of a legislative person because the legislature is going to start on February 6th and there is going to be only 120 days to become familiar with over 1000 bill draft requests. They would have to go to a general session of the house or the senate at the call at least once a day, go to committee and caucus meetings; form and reject coalitions and make sure that their own bills are getting their fair shake of the process. They would need to be kind to the constituents regardless of how demanding they are and deal with hundreds of lobbyist in the legislature building. Keeping that in mind, the job as an advocate would be to first try to know the representative of their district, preferably when they are not in session so they can build communication. Campaigning for them and donating to their campaign helps in a way to also get a good reputation with the representative. Not everyone is able to campaign or donate, but if a person is able to, it is a good advocacy tool. During the session, always tell the truth whether it helps the objective or not. Don’t spin anything because as an advocate, they will lose credibility. Try to have reasonable answers to objections before going to talk to the legislature. Know the subject better than anyone else and know the opposition and what they are going to say. Sally stated she and Connie met with Randolph Townsend and he once said there are legislators that are only trying to get their name in the paper and legislators that are in Carson City to do the work. Those who are prepared to do the work and attend meetings are the legislators that other legislators trust and respect. Sally stated that advocates need to communicate quickly and effectively, be familiar with the elevator speech, which is a way to condense the issue with a few sentences and be able to tell someone the issue while they are in the elevator. It would have to be concise, clear, and as thorough as it can be in a couple of minutes; the elevator speech needs to be practiced as much as possible. If the representative becomes interested, then they are going to want to know more and they will stop and extend the conversation with them, but the better thing would be to get an appointment with them. If they don’t have the time or interest to talk long, the advocate should graciously leave. When graciously leaving, always give them a hard copy of the issue and follow up with an email. In the email thank them for their time, state the position concisely and give them contact information. Also, an advocate needs to be prepared to wait because it’s not their schedule to control. They might be able to wait or reschedule an appointment; those two options should be available. If an advocate needs to testify, they have to be completely prepared and well organized. Remember the etiquette and always state the name and who they represent; address the chair of the committee and ask the chair for permission to speak. Do not repeat what has been said before. State that there is agreement or disagreement with the previous statement, and answer all the questions to the best of your ability. If information is not known, never bluff; just let them know the information will be sent later. It is important to be brief and leave out excess personal information. If a bill is being changed, it is important to try and do it before it goes to the bill writers. If the bill has something that the advocate does not feel is adequate, then they would need to speak with the sponsor of the bill and let them know their concerns. Bill revisions should be submitted after the first hearing in the first house. It is dangerous to try and make a change in the bill because then it can be tabled by the legislature. It is the people’s right to go into the legislature hearing with a bill in their hand and say “this doesn’t make sense.” If there is a good argument by the advocate, the chair can say “we’ll see you in the woodshed” which is basically an office where two people that don’t agree talk out the differences. Sally provided the handout of the home page of the Nevada Legislature website (see attachment). There are five things to know about the page; first is General Information which has legislative terms and it will help look up terminology used. There is also a map of the legislative building that will help guide those that go to the building (see attachment). Sally also provided a diagram that shows the legislative process of a bill from beginning to end (see attachment). On the website under Session Information, which is the 79th session, it shows the index and will give information about bills, meetings, and history of bills. Sally stated there is another site that has the BDR list; it is basically the bill information and opinion site and is very easy to use. Sally provided the handout Bill Draft Requests by Subject (see attachment) that provides a list of BDRs that advocate on behalf of people who are older and/or vulnerable. If a BDR has turned into a bill, they will add a bill number on it. On the website, there is also a link to Personalized Legislative Tracking and in order to use it, an account has to be set up. The list will give automatic bill tracking up to 10 bills. Sally also provided a map of the legislative building (see attachment), but sometimes the map next to the elevator in the building will help more. The Commission on Aging has developed a handout to educate the legislature on elder issues in Nevada. There are 5 different topics that they are advocating which include Behavioral and Cognitive Care, Healthcare, Medicaid, and Residential and Long Term Care. Sandra Dexter asked how people who don’t have access to a computer get information on the legislature and Sally stated the best thing they can do is read the newspaper, watch the news, or be at the legislature. Public member Brooke Lymes suggested the manager of the Reno center provide computers for seniors so they can keep up to date information on the legislature. Donna Clontz stated there are computers at the library and a volunteer could set up a small group session to look at information on the legislature. Gary Golightly stated the library carries newspapers. Jacob Harmon from Alzheimer’s Association stated they are very involved with the legislature along with AARP and members of the public who would like more information can contact them and get information.

Donna stated there is a handout of the Northern Nevada Legislature Member list (see attachment) for the public to take. Staff gathered information such as addresses from members of the public that would like to know their elected officials; staff will have contact information for them so that they can advocate to the correct elected officials. Donna also stated there isn’t an advisory board for seniors in the City of Sparks and encourages the public to look into a board at Sparks. RTC worked with SCAC to take names of people who would like to ride the bus to Carson City for Senior Day at the Legislature. Senior Day at the Legislature will start at 8:00 am and lunch will be provided. Seniors will be able to meet with elected representatives and learn about issues. Elder Services Guide & Resources brochures (see attachment) are available as a starting point for seniors looking for things such as housing, caregiving, food and nutrition, and healthcare. There are over 152,000 thousand people that are over 50 years old and the population keeps growing.

Donna stated if people are not interested in the legislature, they can use their advocate training at City Council and County Commission meetings that happen 2-3 times a month.

Larry stated there is a Master Plan for senior services in Washoe County and progress has been made on them, but he would like to keep working on it. He listed the 12 goals of the master plan (see attachment). The purpose is to not be 3rd in receiving necessary resources; Commissioner Jung mentioned that seniors were 3rd; first was children receiving resources, 2nd was animals, and 3rd was seniors. Larry stated seniors need to be treated better than animals.

7. Business:
   a. Discussion and possible action regarding current legislation and advocacy for senior issues with policymakers including identification of issues and dates for future advocacy training and workshops–Donna stated based on the group, one idea is to set up a weekly meeting at the county senior center. Connie stated she is the owner of Senior Spectrum and as an editor has received very few letters in the 22 years she has been editor. She is also the president of the Washoe County Senior Coalition and advocacy is their thing because they are a 501c4. The Senior Coalition meets the 1st Friday of every month at Renown at 8:30 am in the Mac auditorium. They keep up-to-date information on what is going on in legislature. Dennis Chin suggested some of the notices for meetings may be posted at the library.
Member of the public asked if there was going to be talk about federal issues affecting seniors. Donna Clontz stated she believed there should be follow up meetings to talk about more specific issues and either focus on federal, county, or state. Marsy stated they should reach out to congressmen, such as Katie Pace from Dean Heller’s office or Senator Masto because they have local offices in Reno and ask if they could attend some of the monthly meetings. Mike Thorton, executive director of ACTION (Acting in Community Together Organizing Northern Nevada) stated they have been working on housing and homelessness. They will be having a public convening on January 9th at Sparks Christian Fellowship at 6:00 pm. They would like people to attend and let them know about the issues that concern them. George McNally stated that in the 2 years he has been in Senior Law Project as a lawyer, he is concerned about the increase of seniors facing unlawful evictions. His concern is also that he represents seniors at court hearings and landlords are getting advice from judges. George stated the services are free and to let people know if they need legal help they can go to Senior Law Project. Donna stated she spoke with a sheriff and he said he is talking with judges and they are thinking they should create special courts that involve evictions and that way be able to try and prevent any unlawful evictions for seniors and adults. Wendy Boszak stated many groups are forming coalitions and she believes it would be a good idea to connect with coalitions that are already formed instead of creating new ones.

8. Discussion and possible action regarding joint projects such as Senior Day at the Legislature, Older Americans Month, Stuff-A-Bus for Seniors, co-sponsorship of seminars on affordable housing and financial security, transportation and other topics – Donna stated every year the month of May is Older Americans Month and she would like two meetings to plan events; the theme is “Aging Out Loud.” From the county: Marsy, Wayne, and Larry would like to volunteer and work on OAM. From the city: CJ, Wendy, Vanessa, Linda and Donna would like to volunteer as well. Donna also welcomed participation and attendance from members of the public. Donna stated Stuff-A-Bus happens twice a year, during winter time and OAM in May. The items collected in barrels located throughout the community are put in to an RTC bus and then taken to the Reno center for seniors in need. She would like a sub-committee that would meet a couple of times; Larry, Marsy, and Stan volunteered to work on Stuff-A-Bus. Donna Clontz motioned for creating a sub-committee for Older Americans Month for SCAC and Marsy Kupfersmith seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously for the SCAC. Marsy Kupfersmith motioned for creating a sub-committee for Older Americans Month for WCSSAB and Wayne Alexander seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously for the WCSSAB. Donna Clontz motioned for creating a sub-committee for Stuff-A-Bus for SCAC and Marsy Kupfersmith seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously for the SCAC. Larry Weiss motioned for creating a sub-committee for Older Americans Month for WCSSAB and Garth Elliot seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously for the WCSSAB. Larry stated co-sponsorship of seminars on affordable housing and financial security, and transportation is postponed for a future agenda item; Donna replied the items are covered in seminars during OAM.

9. Washoe County Staff Report – Ken Retterath reported they recently hired a Human Services Program Supervisor and her function will be to coordinate and grow the nutrition program.

10. City of Reno Staff Report – Darryl Feemster reported the registration for Reno-Tahoe Senior Winter Games has started and registration will be closing January 23rd. The first meeting for volunteers will be January 11th at 11:30 am at the Evelyn Mount Northeast Community Center.
11. Agenda items for the next Joint Board meeting – Donna suggested transportation issues be an item for the next joint meeting. Wendy Boszak suggested an update on the legislature be provided. Garth Elliot suggested recreational activities for seniors. Larry stated next joint meeting would be the 1st Wednesday of April.

12. Public Comment – Brooke Lymes suggested instead of watching the news to go out and stand in line at St. Vincent’s and talk to people and get their life story and that way they can be better advocates. She would also like for people to consider the difference between law and regulation. She also expressed her thanks to the Board for all they do. Janice Flanagan suggested that for recreation activities to take into consideration people with disabilities and make trails more accessible to wheelchairs. Ivan Espinoza, Director of Aging and Disability Resource Center stated they have a specialist that will help people find resources or make referrals to other agencies. They have an office at the Reno center on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday from 8-5 pm. Diane Buckley stated she attended the Sparks Senior Center and no one knew what was going on and didn’t know about the meeting. Agustin Cortes stated he advocates for elders and a serious concern of his is the hit and runs. There was a veteran who was run over and there was only a misdemeanor that was given to the driver. There was also a senior driver that ran over someone. Tod Sherman stated they have to work with officials and make Nevada great.

13. Adjournment - Larry Weiss motioned for Adjournment for the WCSSAB and Garth Elliot seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously for the WCSSAB. Marsy motioned for Adjournment for the SCAC and Donna Clontz seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously for the SCAC. The meeting was adjourned at 4:59 pm.
2016 FACTS ABOUT WASHOE COUNTY SENIORS*

- People aged 50 and over make up about 35% of the Washoe County population. In 2016, there are over 152,000 people in Washoe County aged 50 or more. By 2034, this group will grow steadily to over 183,000, and will still represent about 35% of the total Washoe County population.

- The fastest growth among Washoe seniors are those aged 65-plus who currently number over 65,000 and will grow to almost 91,000 by 2034, a 60% growth rate.

- Our rapidly aging population will need more services as it ages, and community leaders must prioritize those needs and plan and budget to meet them.

- At age 65 and above, many elders experience increased ambulatory difficulty, hearing and vision loss and increased need for caregiving assistance. Finding information about those needed resources is a pervasive problem.

- Poverty is up for our elders. The estimated number of people aged 55 and over living below poverty in Washoe County more than doubled from 2005-2014 (from about 6,000 to almost 13,000). Income is slipping for those still working and for those aged 65-75 and retired.

- Housing is becoming more expensive, and there is a lack of affordable housing for lower and middle income people in Washoe County.

- About 25% of seniors in Washoe County are moderately to highly isolated. Isolation is as much a predictor of early death as is living in poverty.

- Suicide rates for Washoe County seniors are among the highest nationwide.

- By April 2017, Washoe County Senior Services will reach its capacity (400,000 annual meals) for serving meals to seniors. About 20% of those eating lunch at Washoe County Senior Center report that it is the only meal they have that day.

- Washoe County seniors over age 65 have higher education levels than younger groups. This is a benefit to employers seeking qualified employees and for groups seeking to involve seniors as skilled volunteers.

TIPS FOR SENIOR ADVOCATES

– How to Be Effective on Your Visit
  • Plan the meeting in advance – create an agenda with a few talking points, decide who will speak, tell your story, listen to the legislator’s response, make a clear and simple ask, provide a short (1 page) handout.
  • Know the issue and the legislator’s background and priorities. Always remember, your main strength is as a constituent with an important concern. Moving, personal stories are powerful.
  • Be respectful, but direct. Listen to questions and concerns, but keep the meeting on track and ask the legislator for a specific action that supports your cause.
  • Follow up with a thank you note; stay in touch with their assistant; build a relationship.

– How to Make an Effective Public Comment
Nevada law requires allowing public comment during all public meetings under the Open Meeting Law. You can make a public comment on any topic at the beginning or end of the agenda or on a specific item on the agenda during the discussion of that item. You may be restricted to two or three minutes, depending on the group you are addressing. Generally, the members of the body do not respond to or ask questions of the person making public comment. You can also make your public comment in writing in person or online.
  • Fill out a request to speak form and give to the clerk. You can write your comments on the card and whether you support or oppose an agenda item. At the Legislature, at committee hearings, you should always sign in with the clerk, and register whether you support or oppose items on the agenda. These comments are tallied along with live testimony in the record.
  • Greet the chairperson, the members and the manager.
  • Plan your talking points – one or two points is all you need for a short statement.
  • Make an impact by telling a story or giving a personal example.
  • Be as brief as possible and stay within the time allotted.
  • Be civil, but direct in your remarks.
  • Thank them for their time.

The following actions are in approximate order of effectiveness.
1. Visit personally, making an appointment to discuss your issues; bring others who feel the same and include constituents. Be prepared by setting meeting goals and priorities, having all the needed facts at hand, and bringing some information to leave with them. If you don’t have an answer, say that you will find out and get back to them. Your meeting can be at their legislative office or you can arrange a visit when they come home.
2. Discuss your issue in social settings or other contacts with your policy maker.
3. Send an e-mail or text message.
4. Telephone and discuss your issue.
5. Question policy makers about your issue at town meetings and other forums.
6. Write or fax a letter personalized to a single policy maker.
7. Send or fax a form letter.
8. Send a pre-printed postcard, or sign a petition.
9. Leave a phone message.

This care is provided in the home, group homes, assisted living facilities or nursing homes.

Visitation standards make homes easier for people who have limited mobility (walker, cane, or wheelchair) to visit friends and family rather than having to turn down invitations, or not be invited at all. These features also permit formerly non-disabled people to remain in their homes if they develop a disability. These and Universal Design standards avoid expensive renovations, moving to a different house, living in an inaccessible home, or moving to an institution or nursing home.

The ADRC program serves as a single point of entry into the long-term support system for seniors, people with disabilities and caregivers. ADRCs are also referred to as a “one stop shop” or “no wrong door” system. HOW TO GIVE YOUR OPINION ON A BILL/BUDGET

There are several ways to alert our Nevada legislators to our sentiments on specific bills or budgets before the legislature. The legislators pay attention to incoming opinions of their constituents.

A. Put your opinion on the online Bill Info/Budget Info site.

1) Google "Nevada Legislature" or go to the home page:
www.leg.state.nv.us
2) On the right hand side of the Home Page is a list of options. Just below the top of the list is "BDR List", "BDR Fact Sheet" or "Bill Info". Clicking on this allows you to read brief summaries of the Bill Draft Request (BDRs) or the bills.
3) At the bottom of the first list in the right hand column is "Share your opinion on legislative bills". Clicking on this allows you to register for or against individual bills.
4) When the page comes up, you can click on the down arrow at "Select a bill" and then scroll down to the bill or bills that interest you. Alternatively, you can type in the name of the bill, e.g. AB 2. If you do that you must also click on "Get bill information". Then a summary of the bill appears in the box below. You can then click "For" or "Against". You may add a comment, if you wish, or not. You must enter your name and address, but other contact information is unnecessary, then click "Submit".

B. Contact your legislator directly via email, phone call, letter, Facebook or Twitter. On the Nevada Legislature home page, in the middle of the right hand column is "Current Legislator". Choose Senate or Assembly to go to the list. All contact information is displayed to email, call or write letters (and sometimes Facebook, Twitter or their website). If you do not know your legislators, go a few lines lower on the column to "Who's My Legislator/What's My District?" Type in your street address in the small box at the top of the map to get your legislators' contact information. Legislature Main Phone: 775 684 6789

C. Attend a bill or budget hearing in Carson City or watch it live on the Legislative website. At the top of the column is the "Calendar or Meetings". The meetings are listed by date, time, and committee name. You can click on the agenda on the right; click on the bills that are listed to read them, view the meeting live or view past video sessions that are archived on the site.

NEVADA'S LEGISLATIVE PROCESS

INITIAL STEPS BY THE AUTHOR

IDEA & DRAFTING
Sources of ideas for legislation include State and local governments, elected officials, businesses, organizations, and citizens. Requests for drafting may be made by legislators, legislative committees, the Governor, State agencies, and local governments. A staff attorney for the Legislature prepares a formal draft of a bill.

INTRODUCTION & FIRST READING
A bill is submitted for introduction by an individual legislator or committee chair. It is then numbered, read for the first time, referred to committee, printed, and delivered to the committee.

COMMITTEE ACTION & REPORT
A committee may make a variety of recommendations to the entire legislative body. It may recommend that the legislative body pass a bill as it is written or pass it with certain amendments. If a committee decides that a bill requires further committee consideration, it may recommend that the legislative body amend the bill and refer it back to the same committee or that it refer the bill to another committee. Finally, a committee may vote to indefinitely postpone consideration of a bill, effectively killing it, or may take no action at all. After committee reports are read, bills are placed on second reading for the next legislative day unless the committee, by unanimous vote, recommends the bill be placed on the Consent Calendar. This action is limited to certain noncontroversial bills reported out of committee without amendment.

SECOND READING
Bills are read a second time and debated. A roll call vote follows. For passage of measures that require a constitutional majority, 11 votes are needed in the Senate and 23 in the Assembly. Bills with tax or fee increases require a two-thirds majority (14 votes in the Senate and 26 in the Assembly). A measure that does not receive at least the required number of votes is defeated. Any member who casts a vote on the prevailing side of a measure may serve notice of reconsideration to request a second vote. All bills that are passed by the first legislative house are then forwarded to the second legislative house where the process begins again.

ACTION IN THE SECOND HOUSE

FIRST READING
Bill is read for the first time and referred to committee.

PROCEDURES AND POSSIBLE ACTIONS ARE NEARLY IDENTICAL TO THOSE IN THE FIRST LEGISLATIVE HOUSE.

COMMITTEE ACTION & SECOND READING
The procedure is identical to that in the first legislative house. If the second legislative house considers and passes a bill without amendment, it is referred to the first legislative house for enrollment and transmission to the Governor. (Bill amendments are delivered to the Secretary of State.) If the second legislative house amends a measure, it is returned to the house of origin for consideration of the amendment.

FLOOR DEBATE & VOTE
The procedures are similar to those in the first legislative house. If the amendment is rejected by the house of origin, the bill is returned to the second legislative house for a decision whether to withdraw (mode of withdrawal is left to the discretion of the house). If the second legislative house for a decision whether to withdraw (mode of withdrawal is left to the discretion of the house) to withdraw (mode of withdrawal is left to the discretion of the house) to withdraw (mode of withdrawal is left to the discretion of the house). If the amendment is rejected by the house of origin, the bill is returned to the second legislative house for a decision whether to withdraw (mode of withdrawal is left to the discretion of the house). If the amendment is rejected by the house of origin, the bill is returned to the second legislative house for a decision whether to withdraw (mode of withdrawal is left to the discretion of the house).

RESOLUTION OF DIFFERENCES, IF NECESSARY

CONCURRENCE
The house of origin decides whether to accept the second legislative house's amendment. If it accepts the amendment, the bill is enrolled and delivered to the Governor. When the amendment is rejected by the house of origin, the bill is returned to the second legislative house for consideration of the amendment. If the amendment is rejected by the house of origin, the bill is returned to the second legislative house for consideration of the amendment. If the amendment is rejected by the house of origin, the bill is returned to the second legislative house for consideration of the amendment. If the amendment is rejected by the house of origin, the bill is returned to the second legislative house for consideration of the amendment. If the amendment is rejected by the house of origin, the bill is returned to the second legislative house for consideration of the amendment. If the amendment is rejected by the house of origin, the bill is returned to the second legislative house for consideration of the amendment. If the amendment is rejected by the house of origin, the bill is returned to the second legislative house for consideration of the amendment. If the amendment is rejected by the house of origin, the bill is returned to the second legislative house for consideration of the amendment. The house of origin must adopt the report first. If either house fails to adopt the report, the bill dies. However, if both legislative houses adopt the report, the bill is enrolled and delivered to the Governor.

CONFERENCE
If the two-house conference committee is unable to resolve the differences between the houses, it sends a conference committee report to the Governor. If the Governor disapproves the amendment, the Governor may ask the conference committee to withdraw (mode of withdrawal is left to the discretion of the house). If the Governor disapproves the amendment, the Governor may ask the conference committee to withdraw (mode of withdrawal is left to the discretion of the house). If the Governor disapproves the amendment, the Governor may ask the conference committee to withdraw (mode of withdrawal is left to the discretion of the house). If the Governor disapproves the amendment, the Governor may ask the conference committee to withdraw (mode of withdrawal is left to the discretion of the house).

ROLE OF THE GOVERNOR

SIGN OR VETO?
The Governor must act on a bill within 5 days after it is received (Sundays excepted) or if the Legislature is still in session. However, if there are fewer than 3 days remaining in session, or if the bill is delivered after the adjournment sine die, the Governor has 10 days after adjournment to act. The Governor may sign the bill into law, allow it to become law without a signature, or veto it. A vetoed bill is returned to the house of origin for reconsideration over vetoing the bill. An override of the veto requires a two-thirds majority vote of each legislative house. If the Governor vetoes a bill after the session adjourns sine die, the bill is returned to the next regular legislative session. Measures become effective on October 1 following the end of the legislative session, unless otherwise specified in the bill.

Revised October 2014
This chart primarily describes legislative steps for a bill. The process for a resolution varies slightly depending upon whether it is a one-house, concurrent, or joint resolution. Deadlines for final action on bills and joint resolutions by committees and houses are typically established by joint rule at the beginning of each legislative session.
