

Electioneering & Campaigning

Electioneering/Campaigning is prohibited within 100 feet from the entrance of the voting area (NRS 293.361 and NRS 293.740)

Election Day the distance is measured from the entrance of the polling place.

Early Voting the distance is measured from the check-in station.

Some Early Voting locations do not allow campaigning anywhere on their property and the Washoe County School District has their own regulations about individuals or signage on school grounds. Please contact the each location for more information regarding their rules and regulations regarding campaigning on their property.

Signs

Before polls open, a "Distance Marker" and no electioneering signs will be posted 100 feet from the entrance to voting. (Early Voting locations will measure the distance from the check-in station)

Poll workers are instructed to periodically check that no electioneering and campaigning is taking place within 100 feet of the entrance of the voting area.

Nevada law defines electioneering as campaigning for or against a candidate, ballot question or political party by:

- Posting signs

- Distributing literature
- Using loudspeakers to broadcast information
- Buying, selling, wearing or displaying any badge, button or other insignia except that a person may wear political insignia while voting ONLY if reasonably unable to cover or remove it
- Polling or otherwise soliciting from a voter information as to whether a voter intends to vote or has voted for or against a particular candidate, ballot questions or political party
- Soliciting signatures of any kind (i.e., for a petition)

Inside a polling place, a person may not:

- Loiter
- Circulate a petition
- Speak to a voter about support/opposition of candidates/questions
- Post any signs relating to candidates/questions
- Wear Insignia, buttons, clothing, or hats with campaign slogans or advertisements
